1. During the recent Berlin Youth Festival a youth executive of the Cominform was established with Prague as headquarters. It will have representatives at all Cominform meetings excluding restricted meetings of the Central Committee of the Cominform.
 2. This executive will take over direct control of all political, cultural, and sports affairs of all para-Communist associations including the International Youth Movement of Peace Partisans. It will be directed by a restricted committee of four. The president of this committee will have a two-year term. The current president of the committee is Enrico Berlinguer.
 3. The executive will have four commissions. They are:
 - a. Commission for peace campaigns in youth mass groups
 - b. Political-Cultural commission
 - c. Organization and coordination committee
 - d. Commission for labor and youth sport group organization.
